Among the articles sold were numerous pieces of silver and chinaware presented to Mrs. Brock by Gen. Clay, and the bidding was spirited. The Brocks decline to say where they will locate.

Mother's Girl.

There exists often a very beautiful companionship between the mother and her daughter. The intimacy is frank, free and sympathetic. But some day the mother feels as if something had chilled this intimacy. The child is silent and sad, and seems to shun her mother instead of seeking her.

This change very often occurs when the young girl is crossing the border line of womanhood. She is morbid, nervous, fearful, as she enters upon this new experience.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at such a time will do more than restore the normal balance of mind and body. It will establish the womanly function upon a basis of sound health, as well as improve the appetite, nourish the nerves, and promote the general physical health.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Broadhead, Green Co., Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was done to help her but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout; weighed 175—the picture of good health, until about the age of fourteen; then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 100. I felt I could not give her up as she was the only child I had, and I must say, Doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave to-day. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1005 pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Rev. O. M. Huey, of Stanford, preached a most excellent sermon at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon. Those not present missed a spiritual feast.

Prof. R. S. Hubank accompanied him. George B. Harris has bought P. J. Jones' stock of goods and will continue the business at the same stand. It is his intention to enlarge the stock and he asks a share of patronage from his friends.

Mr. Jones and wife will probably make their future home in West Virginia. Their many friends will regret to see them leave.

Mrs. M. H. Macaulay is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Patton. Mrs. Tom White is visiting J. T. Chadwick and family. The latter lost a pet horse a few days ago, which was 25 years old and never sick a day. Heart failure caused poor Dick's death. Mr. Chadwick tells us Maurice Perkins is at home from a lengthy and delightful trip through the West. He reports leaving his fellow traveler, Andrew Huebman, looking well and being in fine spirits.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dean left a few days ago to make their home in West Liberty to the regret of their friends here. Mrs. Robt. Collier was here from Broadhead to see the dentist, Dr. Clinkscales at the Gover Hotel. Will Brooks, one of our most popular commercial men, was a guest at the King Hotel several days. Mrs. Patton has recovered sufficiently from her recent fall to be out again. Mr. and Mrs. Herlt, the clever jester and wife, of Stanford, were visitors of Mrs. John Riddle Saturday.

Mrs. J. D. Pettus is improving slowly from her recent illness. Mrs. Slim Middleton, who has been visiting her daughter in Stanford, has returned. Miss Annie Middleton is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Gray, at Stanford. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Guest are visiting in Louisville this week. It is rumored that Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holdam will make their home in Stanford, if he is re-elected. We hope this is untrue for we dislike to see such clever citizens leave our city, and what would we do for our daily Holdam express, as he is familiarly called by his friends here, carrying messages and packages both ways and never refusing any.

The scratch of a pin may cause the loss of a limb or even death when blood poisoning results from the injury. All danger of this may be avoided, however, by promptly applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is an antiseptic and unequalled as a quick healing liniment for cuts, bruises and burns. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

In an entire year only one person was killed on the railways in Great Britain. In three months 845 persons have been killed and 11,162 injured on American lines. The reason for this is plain—it is a more serious matter to kill a person on an English railroad than it is in America.

The best physic. "Once tried and you will always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says William A. Girard, Pease, Vt. These Tablets are the most prompt, most pleasant and most reliable cathartic in use. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Rev. Crooke, of Central University, Danville, will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Rev. Woolford will preach at Herring's school house Sunday afternoon.

David Thompson sold a part of what was the late John Gill farm to J. M. McCarley for $4,000. The tract adjoins Mr. McCarley's own farm, and is some of the most productive in the county.

J. R. Haselden has adorned the front of his hardware store by an electric sign advertising the buggy and wagon department. It is quite ornamental and brilliantly illuminates that part of the square.

Two or three men circulated a whisky petition at the Walker's school house precinct on Monday, but the matter was soon settled by several prohibitionists following closely in their wake and securing two signatures to their one.

The poisoning of Mrs. Nancy Birch, of Louisville, was noted here with more than usual concern, as her husband, the late George Birch, was a native of Garrard and lived in this vicinity until a well-grown youth and was an employe on the farm of the late Albert Herndon. Mr. Birch visited his aged Garrard friend not long before his death and was continually expressing his gratitude by little gifts and declaring that Mr. Herndon's aid and advice had helped him lay the foundation for a successful business career.

Misses Annie Austin and Florence Harris accompanied S. B. Henry to El Dorado, Ark. Mrs. J. W. Humphrey was called back to Hamilton, O., by the critical illness of her daughter, Mrs. Jordan. Mrs. J. C. Hemphill entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. F. D. Galloway, of Danville. Mrs. W. P. Walden gave a reception in honor of her brother, Mr. Brewer, and bride, of Harrodsburg. Judge J. S. Robinson is spending several days in Madison. Miss Leo Prewitt, of Kirksville, is the guest of Mrs. R. A. Stone. Capt. Elkin has returned from a trip to Atlanta. Rev. J. E. A Mother's Recommendation.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The Republic of Liberia has donated $25,000 toward the purchase of a steamship to ply direct between America and West Africa. The steamer will be used to carry Negro immigrants to Liberia.

CAPT. FRANK J. WHITE

Capt. White has just celebrated his 83rd birthday. He is probably the oldest printer at the "case" and he is beyond doubt one of the very best. He worked in this office until a decade ago, since which he has been with the Central Record at Lancaster. He is a fine old gentleman and can yet set as much type as many printers 50 or 60 years his junior.

STRANGE LYNCHING.

"Speaking of lynchings," said the man from Mississippi, "reminds me of the most peculiar instance ever 'pulled off' in the Black Belt. You must know that infinitely the greater number of impromptu hangings which take place from time to time in that State occur in the hills, where strong measures are needed to mark the difference between the lowest grade of whites and the common run of Negroes. Occasionally, however, we do resort to a long rope and an oak limb to punish infractions of the social code, and when we do we sometimes adopt unique methods. Upon the occasion I now remember a field hand on one of the big plantations got so mixed up with the contents of the plantation store that he burned the building down upon the murdered clerk to hide the evidences of crime. Bloodhounds took the trail, but lost it in the nearest swamp. Poses scoured the country, but found no traces of the runaway. One day the owner of the plantation was riding through a woodland back of his place. A Negro sprang across the road in front of him, glancing with a frightened expression in the direction of the white man. The white man, a dignified and graybearded ex-Confederate, recognized the criminal, and started his deer dog after him. Within 200 yards he ran the fugitive to bay. The wretch pleaded for his life, swore in one breath that he was innocent and in the next acknowledged the deed, and wept for mercy. The white man was inexorable. Taking a long rope from his saddle he forced the darkey to tie it about his thick, black neck. The Negro begged for time to pray. This was granted him, and the trembling animal dropped to a heap upon the ground to pour out his soul in frenzied howls for help and pity. At last the white man kicked him from the ground, and ordered him to climb a tree. Quivering and flinching at every step the ashy-faced wretch worked his way up a young oak. Reaching a limb 15 feet above the ground he was compelled to knot the rope about the limb, given one minute for prayer and then ordered to jump. The walling darkey hesitated, steadied himself for a moment and leaped out into the air. The white man rode into the little country seat and told the sheriff he would find the criminal in a near-by wood. The sheriff sprang to his feet and shouted for the dogs.

"Never mind the dogs, sheriff," said the plantation owner, "take a wagon," and he rode on to the postoffice. The peculiar feature of the affair is that the lyncher had no weapon with him save a little riding switch."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Buy It Now.

Do not wait until you or some of your family are sick nigh unto death, and then send for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, but buy it now and be prepared for an emergency. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

BET sugar, wherever the local conditions are favorable, is now profitable far beyond the average crop or industry, both to the farmer and the manufacturer. Two or three years ago the Department of Agriculture published a special report on the growing of sugar beets, in which the stimulation of the business by bounties was deprecated as wholly superfluous. There is no excuse whatever, therefore for the proposition in Congress to pay a bounty of a cent a pound for five years, and smaller amounts for three years more, to manufacturers of sugar. It is not necessary to hire men to go into a business that, if successful, offers profits much above the ordinary.

THE merits of the whipping post for wife beaters are once more under discussion in New York State. President Roosevelt, while in the Legislature several years ago, made a strenuous effort to provide this method of dealing with cruel husbands. After he had collected authenticated records showing the astonishing prevalence of this cowardly practice, he proposed a bill providing for the revival of the whipping post "for wife beaters only." The measure was defeated, but it should not have been. The whipping post would furnish fit punishment for a number of offenses.

ANOTHER legislature is seeking fame by the anti-kiss bill route. The Hon. Barnes, of the Tennessee general assembly, sees the Virginian and the Michiganader one better by presenting a bill absolutely prohibiting kissing by persons between the ages of 16 and 45 years in public or private unless married. Violation of the proposed act will mean a fine of $5 to $50 and one to 12 months' imprisonment. The reason for so drastic an enactment is not given but its introduction shows the love of notoriety even in small matters.

THERE is a proposition in Congress to double the salary of the president of the United States, making it $100,000 per annum. Not many years ago it was $25,000 and it was considered a big salary. But it was raised to $50,000, and in time, if it is necessary to keep down the surplus arising from the high tariff, it will be raised to a million. The money might as well go that way as by other schemes not near as plausible.

ALL the States in the union have their full quota of senators except Delaware, which has none, and of the 88 senators all told, 61 of them are lawyers. Of the rest, one is a civil engineer, two are doctors, three are journalists, and the others are bankers, miners, farmers, business men and politicians.

IT is rare that the private secretary of a senator succeeds to his position, but a case in point is the election of Lee Overman to the United States Senate from North Carolina. He was for many years secretary of Senator Zeb Vance, and is a man of character and ability.

J. Edward Addicks has withdrawn from the race for U. S. Senator in Delaware.

Senator Hanna has introduced a bill in the Senate providing for the payment of bounties and bonuses to former slaves.

Colorado's democracy has been re-elected through the re-election of Senator Teller. Senator Patterson says the State will probably hereafter be found in the democratic column.

Upon the recommendation of John W. Langley, Miss Ailie Combs will be appointed postmaster at Hindman, Knott county, to succeed F. B. Allen, removed on the report of a postoffice inspector.

The Senate passed, without discussion, the Elkins bill regulating railroads and interstate commerce. The measure resembles in some of its features the general anti-trust bill framed by the House subcommittee on judiciary. The Senate also passed the army appropriation bill. The independent measure creating a general staff was also passed.

James Gibony, the nominee for circuit clerk, was in Louisville last week in consultation with the chairman of the State central committee, in the interest of the contest which is being threatened by his opponent, Jason Wesley. We hoped the trouble would be settled without a contest, but it seems there is no way out of it.

The large barn of Ack L. Harned, of Nelson county, burned. Nineteen horses and mules and a quantity of machinery and a lot of grain were also destroyed.

Was "On the Democrat Side."

A number of years ago in the senatorial district, then composed of Garrard, Lincoln, Boyle and Casey, the candidates were the Hon. Ferdinand D. Rigney, of Casey, and Capt. Samuel Boone, who we believe, was then living at Danville. A joint debate was arranged between the two, and they spoke all over the district. Rigney was a man of fine sense, but his early education was neglected, and he was not as well versed in the meaning of words as his smarter but less solid opponent. On one occasion, after questioning Mr. Rigney as to his position on a number of questions then agitating the people, and getting answers that were always satisfactory to his hearers, Capt. Boone asked the old gentleman how he stood on the doctrine of transubstantiation. Mr. Rigney had doubtless never heard of the word, and it was a stumper. He thought a moment and then brought down the house and got the laugh on his tormentor by saying: "I haven't given the question much thought, but I'll promise you one thing, I will be sure to be on the democratic side."—Lexington Democrat.

SOMERSET.

Candlemas day here was a mixity of sunshine and shadow. We trust the hard winds of Tuesday night have blown the clouds away for a season, as today the sun shines brightly after several days of dark and dismal weather.

Despite the inclement weather the people of Somerset keep going and planning for future improvements, and we do not question as to whether she will grasp the opportunities offered her or not, for, with her corps of city officers and other representatives, there's no doubt of the anticipated growth of the city.

Perhaps these almost incessant rains will arouse the spirit of improving the horrible roads in the country, unless it is somewhat like the Arkansas traveler—in good weather one can put up with the roads and in bad weather they can not be worked, so it is better not to defer till tomorrow what should be done today.

H. Henry gave a nice street parade with his handsome automobile and brass band.

The farm is well preserved and improved and contains a large amount of fine saw timber. The improvements consist of a good frame dwelling house with 5 large rooms, a double walled cellar, and two porches; two barns, one an extra good frame with cattle sheds attached and especially arranged for curing tobacco, the other a log stable and wagon shed combined; also a henhouse, a smoke house and corn crib. There is a fine young orchard bearing, a small vineyard and other small fruit. The fencing is of rails and in good repair. The farm is watered with never-failing springs and two cisterns. The owner is a non-resident and offers this farm at a bargain on very easy terms. For further particulars call on or address L. B. Hughes, Sec'y Central Kentucky Real Estate Exchange, Stanford, Lincoln County, Kentucky.

I AM again running my mill and I solicit a share of your patronage, promising good flour and meal. The mill has been thoroughly renovated and is in splendid condition to turn out good work. Don't forget me. Morris Fred.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL rises to ask the question, who keeps the "sick list," so frequently mentioned in its exchanges, and more particularly by the country correspondents? There is no "sick list" keeper in Lincoln county and if the adjoining counties have them, we are behind the times and we will at once petition the fiscal court to establish such an office and request that a good salary be attached to it.

THE Lincoln County Medical Society will meet here next Tuesday, 10th, at 10 A. M. All members are requested to attend as important business is to be transacted. The subject for discussion is "Fractures of the Hip Joint."

A STREET from Logan Avenue, through the lot of Mr. Cleo Reynolds and Dr. W. B. O'Hannon, up Higheation Avenue and through floors J. N. Saunders' and H. Helm's lots to Danville Avenue, is proposed and an effort is being made to build it.

MR. E. S. ALBRIGHT, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, came down yesterday and bought of this office a Cincinnati Cylinder press, on which the Signal will soon be printed. Mr. Albright is thinking of increasing his paper to a seven column folio.

J. R. BEAZLEY lost another horse Wednesday night. The animal got its head caught in the stable and was almost dead when found. This makes nearly a half hundred horses Mr. Beazley has lost since he has been in the livery business here.

As the crowd at Mt. Vernon next Monday will more than likely be small on account of the small-pox scare, the INTERIOR JOURNAL representative will postpone his trip to that good town until some more opportune season. If any of our flockstock patrons are on hand, however, and want to pay for the "cheapest and best," we will be obliged to them if they will hand the money to Mr. E. S. Albright, editor of the Signal, who will forward it to us.

MR. SILAS ANDERSON is living evidence of what a man can do by hard work and economy. Years ago he worked for Mr. William Lackey on the farm, which he now owns, at $6 per month. He saved his money and after a while bought nine acres of land, making only a part payment on it. To day he owns 1,260 acres of first-class land, lives in a comfortable brick house and besides having his farm well stocked, he owns bank stock and has other paying investments. Mr. Anderson is past the allotted age of three score and 10, but is yet in pretty good health and can do about as much hard work as the next one.

THE Advocate says that Col. Isaac Shelby and Mr. James W. Guest will probably be candidates for representative. It is some times necessary to go away from home to hear news at home and this may be such a case. However, we believe neither of the gentlemen will offer for the office. They realize that it is not worth the "scramble" that is necessary to make for it and as both of them are getting along in years, we opine that they would prefer spending their declining days in peace rather than politics. We have heard Mr. S. J. Embury, Sr., mentioned for the office, but we have good grounds for believing that he will not enter. In fact we are satisfied that the race is made up and that only two candidates will face the flag—Hoo. M. F. North and Mr. J. M. Alverson. Mr. R. L. Hubble, who has also been mentioned for representative, told an I. J. reporter that he would not stand for the office. LATER.—Since the above was put in type we learn that Mr. W. H. Johnson, of Crab Orchard, is an avowed candidate.

Let Frack Adkies fix your umbrellas.

COME while we are here and let us make your likeeas. Miss Sacray.

WAIT and see the new wire fence at Higgins & McKinney's. Something new.

HOUSE and lot with good outbuildings on East Main street for rent. Will Cordier.

Our line of fine white goods are different from others. Styles distinctive. Grand Leader.

READ Jesse D. Wearren's insurance card. He represents some of the largest and best companies in existence.

THE crowd was so small at the opera house last night that the Alphonse & Gaston Comedy Co., which was to have played here three nights, very sensibly cancelled its engagement.

At the city council meeting last night, the contract with the Water & Light Co. was renewed, a few bills were ordered paid and Dr. J. F. Peyton and Messrs. M. D. Elmore and John M. Stone were appointed a committee to see what the proposed new street from Logan Avenue to Danville street will cost. W. O. Speed was granted a renewal of his saloon license.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is compelled to ask indulgence of its readers for the West and Southern ends of Lincoln as well as that of those in Casey and Pulaski. The stoppage of the star route from Stafoard to McKinney makes it impossible for our papers to reach all of the points above on the day of publication. It was our intention to send the papers to McKinney at our own expense and from there they could be forwarded as formerly but Postmaster Florence refused our request for mail sacks and as there is no court to appeal to we are at his mercy. Our proposition was to pay postage in advance to Mr. Florence and let him certify to the McKinney postmaster that all postage had been paid and we would deliver to the latter official, mail for Casey, Pulaski and the West End of Lincoln. This was promptly refused, on the grounds that it was against the rules of the post-office department, notwithstanding the P. O. officials would be asked work and there would be no responsibility on their part whatever. We realize that Uncle Sam is a "red tape" man and it is necessary for postmasters to do as he says, but in this case it appears to us that too much tape is being used, and that common sense and judgment are set aside entirely. In the meantime we are doing what we can to have the star-route re-established and think that it can't be very long until the mail wagon between Stafoard and McKinney will be making its daily trips. We hope so at least.

CHURCH MATTERS.

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for."
"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."
Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
